

What To Expo-ct When You're Expo-ing

Typical Itinerary

- Check-In
- Set up model and Show Me Poster
- EXPO!
 - May be interwoven with Team Activities
- Awards and Closing

Expo

- A team of two or more reviewers will visit your team
- Reviewers will interview your team
- Other participants or guests may visit and talk to your team
- Your team may visit other teams

Awards

- FIRST® LEGO® League Jr. is non-competitive
- Every student receives a token (usually a medal) in recognition of their learning and experiences
- Every team receives a trophy in recognition
 - Name plates indicate only “Award”
 - Awards are chosen from an approved list by Reviewers to provide specific, public praise to encourage students to continue learning

Approved Awards

- Model: Solid-as-a-Rock Model Design, Construction Innovation, Master Programmer, Efficient Builders, Amazing Movement, Lil' Einstein, Complexity and Decoration
- Poster/Research: Explosive Ideas, Picasso, Synergy, Journey, Artistic Eye, Show and Tell, On Display
- Core Values: Gracious Professionalism®, Effort and Learning, Rising Stars, Spirit, Inquiring Minds, Outstanding Teamwork, Against All Odds, Cooperation Rocks, Showmanship

Events

- All Teams
 - Local events (Times and locations to be announced)
 - Alabama Expo (March 2019 in Huntsville, AL)
- World Expo (April 2019 in Houston, TX)
 - Chosen by lottery among interested teams who attended the Alabama Expo